No New York State or Local Law requires you to purchase a receptacle to surround the casket or urn in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have a receptacle so that the grave will not sink. Either a burial vault or a grave liner will satisfy these requirements.

There are exceptions in the case of religious reasons.

CUSTODIAL CARE: A fee that is charged for the possession of the remains after the initial three hours, and is a per day charge.

“Custodial Care will not be charged on the days when embalming or other preparation of the remains occurs, visitation is held or a funeral service is conducted.” Taken from the General Price List format as approved by the FTC and the NYS Health Department.

IDENTIFICATION OF REMAINS: A five to ten minute period for a small number of family members or their representatives to identify the deceased. The identification takes place in the funeral home’s preparation holding area. The unembalmed remains are placed on a transfer cot for identification.
