GENERAL PRICE LIST

These prices are effective as of January 1, 2020, and may be subject to change without notice.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the New York State Department of Health both require that certain disclosures be made by the funeral providers on the General Price List. Although these disclosures are similar, they are not exactly the same. This General Price List contains both sets of the required disclosures. The disclosures required by the FTC, when different from those required by the Department of Health, are preceded by the letters "FTC"

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide our families. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our services. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral services and merchandise you selected.

This list may not include prices for certain items that you selected, such as cemetery, crematory, flowers, or newspaper charges. The estimated or final prices for these items will be shown on the itemized statement describing the funeral services and merchandise you selected. We charge you for our services in buying certain items.

Floral Tributes. Floral tributes from family and friends can be displayed at the service, ceremony or visitation. We have a wide selection of florists we recommend, which can be viewed on our website.

Stationery and Memorial Folders. As a lasting tribute to your loved one, we offer personalized stationery packages including items such as memory folders, thank you cards, and prayer or remembrance cards.

Military Honors. To honor a person's service in defense of our freedoms, we frequently arrange for our nation's veterans to be commemorated with special military observances. Depending on the branch of service, military detachments may provide a color guard, musicians, gun salute, or even a flyover.

Invite Friends to Speak. You might ask one or more friends to offer special recollections, or read some of the notes or poems written by other people attending the service.

Create a Memory Table or Memory Board. A display of personal items or photos help people understand and appreciate the life that has been lived.

Special Music. Everyone has a special song or piece of music that carries deep associations and memories. Special musical selections can enhance a service in a way that evokes a certain emotional response. You may wish to have recorded music, or even a live performance.

Themed Services. Whether her favorite pastime was gardening, or he was a military veteran, the service can be themed with special props and articles that truly reflect the person and the life.
